KISCA (Kahala Initiative for Sustainability, Culture, and Arts) is our commitment to preserving our ‘āina, kai, and nā ‘ike a me nā hana (land, ocean, and culture).

We are proud to support many local sustainability efforts and provide guests with opportunities to explore Hawaiian culture on property within our community.

We believe that KISCA is an important program that allows our guests to give back to the community and while experiencing authentic Hawaiian practices and customs.

KISCA Music Event: Ku'uiipo Kumukahi

Plumeria Beach House | December 18th | 6:30PM – 8:30PM

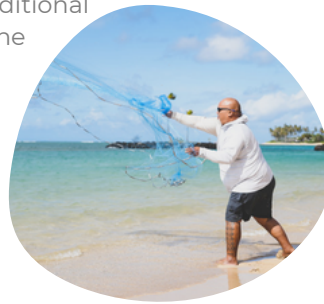

Join us on Wednesday, December 18th for a special musical performance by Ku'uiipo Kumukahi. As the sun sets, enjoy Kahala favorites while you sway to the tunes of local music.

Ku'uiipo's first effort as a musical artist named her the most promising new artist. Her solo premiere recording gave her 9 Nā Hōkū Hanohano Awards nominations and an astounding five awards. Her second album earned her 3 nominations and an award for the excellence use of the Hawaiian language in a musical composition. In 1999, Ku'uiipo obtained the Traditional Hawaiian Album of the Year by the Hawaii Music Awards.

Upena Ho'olei

By the pool | December 21st & 28th | 10:00AM - 11:30 AM

Learn the traditional Hawaiian fishing method of Upena Ho'olei at The Kahala on select Saturdays. This traditional net fishing method has been passed down for generations and fed untold numbers of Hawaiians throughout history. Learn from a master and test your skills, too!

Sunset Seminars

Seaside Grill | December 12th | 5:30PM – 7:00PM *reservations required

Join us to enjoy the beachside view as local researchers and professionals present how environmental and social research supports Hawai'i's environment and people. Both guests and the kama'āina are invited to engage and learn about Hawai'i's natural resources! The seminar is complimentary with a free cocktail tasting highlighting a local distillery. Explore our new food menu featuring a selection of locally sourced dishes available for purchase.
